SPANISH ATROCITIES.

Horrors of Port Arthur Duplicated in the City of Baire.

A BEAUTIFUL GIRL TORTURED

Because She Refused to Renounce the Insurgent Cause—A Story from Insurgent Sources Which, If True, Is a Disgrace to the Civilization of Spain.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Atrocities by Spaniards, as revolting as those committed by the Japanese at Port Arthur, have just been reported to the Cuban revolutionary party in New York. Enrique Trujillo, editor of El Porvenir, received a letter yesterday from Juan Franco, chief of staff under General Maximo Gomez, the commander-in-chief of the insurgent army. It is dated "Headquarters in the field, Aug. 3," and sends details of the capture and recapture of the city of Baire, and the massacre of thirty-seven inoffensive Cubans—mostly women and children—by the Spaniards under Commander Garrido.

On Tuesday morning, according to Colonel Franco's letter, a company of insurgents under Jose Rabi, surprised the Spanish garrison, in the fortress commanding the city of Baire, killed more than seventy men and took fifty six prisoners. They captured a large quantity of arms and persuaded the prisoners to enlist in the insurgent ranks. About an hour later three companies of Spanish troops under Commander Garrido came up and after a short but sharp resistance the Cubans fled, leaving the fortress again in the hands of the invader.

Soon after the fort had been regarrisoned with Spaniards one of the companies broke loose and began to pillage the city. Commander Garrido himself, Colonel Franco states, led the uniformed rioters. The Spaniards were wild for the spilling of blood. Every human creature who came in their path was ruthlessly slain. Within five minutes the streets of Baire were deserted by the panic stricken natives, but the Spaniards followed them into their houses and killed them in their own rooms.

"Age, sex and condition were wholly disregarded by these fiendish butchers," says Colonel Franco. "Old and young women, children—even infants—were slaughtered. Shocking indignities were offered to the unfortunate victims before and after death. The Spanish soldiers stamped on the bodies of those whom they had slain and ground their heels into the faces of many who were still living.

"Senorita Dolores Madera, a beautiful girl of 18, betrothed to one of Captain Rabi's lieutenants, was seized on the street, cruelly beaten, repeatedly stabbed with bayonets and brutally insulted.

"One of Garrido's captains commanded the girl to renounce her Cuban sweetheart and swear loyalty to the Spanish government. She scornfully refused, whereupon the captain struck her across the face with his sword, inflicting a terrible gash. With blood streaming down her face, she taunted the Spaniards with their cowardice. Thereupon the maddened soldiers seized her, bound her hand and foot, threw a noose around her neck, and hanged her to a tree. The torture of Senorita Madera was prolonged as much as possible. While she was still alive, but no longer conscious, her body was riddled with bullets."

Another Reported Insurgent Defeat.

MADRID, Sept. 6.—The Imparcial's Havana correspondent telegraphs that insurgent bands under command of Rogoa and Lina attacked a body of fifty soldiers at Petrero Guyana. The soldiers, finding themselves greatly outnumbered, retreated in an orderly manner, and making a courageous defense until they met another body of eighty soldiers. The united forces then attacked the insurgents, who fled, leaving nine killed, besides arms, horses and ammunition. Of the Spaniards only four were wounded.

The New Illuminant.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—If the prospectus of the Acetyline Light, Heat and Power company, of Philadelphia, means all it says, the day is not remote when the new illuminant will be in practical use in this city. It is declared that it can be made at a cost that will return a large profit if sold at thirty cents per 1,000 feet. Big concerns like the United Gas Improvement company declare that acetyline is impracticable on account of the smell and smoke which it produces. Nevertheless, a $1,000,000 company has been formed to produce it, which development certainly flavors very strongly of business.

Utah's Democratic Nominees.

OGDEN, Utah, Sept. 6.—The Utah Democratic convention instructed almost unanimously to support J. L. Rawlins and Moses Thatcher for the United States senate. B. H. Roberts, of Davis county, was the only name presented for member of congress. For the three members of the supreme court S. R. Thurman, Thomas F. Maloney and R. W. Young were nominated. The platform declares in favor of the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1.

The Czar Fears Nihilists.

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—The Lokal Anzeiger's correspondent at St. Petersburg confirms the statement recently published that in consequence of the activity of the nihilists, it has been found necessary to guard the czar's every step as completely as the movements of his father, Alexander III, were guarded by the police at the most perilous period of his reign. The czarina, whose accouchement is expected in October, is suffering from extreme nervousness in consequence of the danger threatening the czar.

Marauding Kurds Driven Out.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 6.—At Bitlis a body of gendarmes attacked a band of Kurds, who had been committing depredations in the Moosh district. The Kurds sustained serious losses and were driven out from the possession of property of Armenians, which they had seized. The grand vizier has dismissed a number of officials of Moosh, who have been found guilty of exacting taxes and of treating Armenians with ruthless severity.

No Churches in the School Houses.

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 6.—At a meeting of the city school board last night a resolution was adopted rescinding the right of any religious denomination to hold services in the public schools here. Several Protestant congregations have held services in local school houses every Sunday, and as a result of last night's action they will all be driven out. This is the direct outgrowth of the religious garb bill passed by the last legislature.

Death of General A. V. Kautz.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 6.—General A. V. Kautz, U. S. A., recently retired, dropped dead Wednesday night. Death is supposed to have been from heart disease. General Kautz was a fighting character. He had a record for courageous service on the field, and for equally courageous service in getting himself and his fellow officers into hot water with the war department. He was a native of Germany, 67 years old, and had served in the army since 1852, when he graduated from West Point. In the war between the states he rendered signal service on many battlefields.

AGAINST ROYAL PAUPERS.

A World's Trades Union Congress Delegate Urges Their Exclusion.

CARDIFF, Sept. 6.—At yesterday's session of the trades union congress the parliamentary committee was instructed to urge upon parliament the passage of a bill declaring for the principle of payment of salaries to members of the house of commons. Mr. Sexton, a delegate from Liverpool, in seconding a motion for the adoption of a resolution in favor of the prohibition of the landing of pauper aliens, said that he wished to include within the scope of the resolution royal paupers who arrived without visible means of subsistence, but who soon found them. These, Mr. Sexton said, were the men who controlled the empire, while the poor British taxpayers had no rights at all.

Samuel Gompers and P. J. Maguire, who represent the United States in the congress, were given a hearty reception. President Jenkins, in welcoming the American delegates, said that although geographically divided, the workers of America, Great Britain and Ireland were united on all the important questions pertaining to the elevation of their class. Mr. Gompers, in replying to the address of President Jenkins, spoke of the solidity of the feeling and sympathy that existed among trades unionists of the countries.

When Suicide is Justifiable.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—At the medico-legal congress yesterday Albert Bach read Gustav Bolhin's paper on "Suicide and the Right to Commit It." The paper contended it was unfair to proclaim the suicide a lunatic. Temporary insanity was a cheap verdict out of a dilemma. "I do not pretend," went on the paper, "that every one in temporary troubles should commit suicide and thus deliver his own self from threatening inconveniences, but I do insist that there are cases in which suicide is the last and only way to solve the question of individual misery." Albert Bach held that suicide was justifiable in certain cases where the individual had no hope, and that the individual had as much, if not more, right to end his own life than had a doctor to take life in certain circumstances.

Holmes to Be Tried in Philadelphia.

TORONTO, Sept. 6.—The local authorities have been notified that H. H. Holmes, the multiple murderer, will be placed on trial at Philadelphia shortly for the murder of Benjamin F. Pitezel, father of the two little girls whom Holmes is alleged to have murdered in a St Vincent street cottage in this city. In the event of a failure to convict Holmes in Philadelphia he will be handed over to the Indianapolis authorities, and will only be brought to Canada after all attempts to convict him in the United States of a capital offense have proved abortive.

The Duty on Live Moose.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Acting Secretary Curtis has written a letter, refusing to order the return of the duties paid by Dr. W. Seward Webb, of New York, on five female moose, intended for his park in the Adirondack mountains. The acting secretary holds that the moose are not entitled to free entry for breeding purposes, as there are no books of record established for these breeds, or as specimens of natural history, as the act states that such specimens must be imported for cabinets as objects of science.

Not Ready for Sunday Local Option.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Sept. 6.—At the Republican league convention a resolution favoring Sunday local option was presented by Assemblyman Conkling, of New York. The resolution caused a long and exciting debate, and was finally withdrawn by Mr. Conkling, and a substitute presented indorsing the enforcement of the Sunday closing law. George E. Green, of Binghamton, was re-elected president by acclamation. Syracuse was selected as the next place of meeting.

Another "Probable" Supreme Justice.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Professor John G. Moore, of Columbia college, New York, who is engaged in the compilation of a history of the arbitrations to which the United States has been a party, by special direction of congress has announced to the state department the early completion of the work. It is said here that the president has his name under consideration in connection with the existing vacancy on the supreme bench.

Belgium Must Answer to England.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—In the house of commons Mr. George N. Curzon, under foreign secretary, stated that while the documents received from the Congo country in regard to the execution of the British trader Stokes by the Belgian authorities do not contain all the information desired, they still contain enough to show the very serious character of the case. A full explanation will be vigorously demanded.

No Bounty for Sugar Producers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Controller Bowler, of the treasury department, last evening promulgated his decision in the now celebrated sugar bounty question. He holds that as controller he has jurisdiction to pass upon the claims for sugar bounties, and also holds that that part of the act of congress making an appropriation for the payment of sugar bounty claims is unconstitutional.

His Skull Crushed with a Crowbar.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 6.—William Schwab, better known as "Dynamite Bill," hit Michael McDonald, a fellow laborer, on the head with an iron crowbar. McDonald's skull was crushed and he is dying at the city hospital. A mob took after Schwab and to escape from them he leaped into the Mississippi, but was pursued along the river bank and finally captured.

Another Chance for Life.

MANASSAS, Va., Sept. 6.—Judge Lipscomb yesterday set aside the verdict rendered by the jury on Wednesday in the case of George Posey and his son, Fred Posey, convicted of murder. The judge ordered a new trial on the ground of improper conduct on the part of one of the jurors, who, it is alleged, offered to bet the accused would be convicted.

UNTERRIFIED ANARCHY.

Another Bomb Thrower Arrested in the French Capital.

THE MISSILE FAILED TO EXPLODE.

An Acknowledged Anarchist Enters the Rothschilds' Bank in Paris with Murderous Intent—Drew a Razor on the Officers Who Arrested Him.

PARIS, Sept. 6.—De Rothschild's banking house in this city was the scene yesterday of another nihilistic attempt. At 2:20 o'clock a man entered the bank from the Rue Lafitte. In the vestibule a detective who was on guard saw the stranger trying to light the fuse of a bomb with a cigarette. The ashes of the cigarette prevented the ready ignition of the fuse, and the man, seeing that he was observed, threw the bomb on the carpeted floor. The weapon did not explode, and the man was arrested. When he was taken to the police office he boldly avowed himself an anarchist. He made a desperate attempt to use a razor before he was overpowered by the detective and a policeman who had come to his assistance.

Police officials believe, from the appearance of the culprit, that he is a brother of Pawels, who perpetrated the Madeleine outrage. He is about 35 years of age, of medium height, beetle browed, wears a short moustache, has a sullen stare and is very pale.

The bomb was made of a half pound of cocoa tin, tied with a string and wound about with wire. A round hole, a quarter of an inch in size, was in the side of the bomb, and from this fell a whitish powder.

At the police office the man was examined by Inspector Carnerre, acting in the absence of Commissary Guerin. He at first obstinately refused to talk and was taken to the central prison. There he became more communicative and openly professed anarchistic theories, declaring that he intended the bomb as an anarchistic demonstration. His act, he said, was a protest against the proceedings of bankers. He had travelled throughout France, never remaining long in the same place in order not to awaken suspicion. He professes a contempt for work, since every one lives at the expense of society.

The recent explosive letter received at De Rothschilds' bank, and which cost Baron Alphonse de Rothschilds' confidential clerk an eye, the man said, was only a hoax, yesterday's attempt being expected to have a salutary effect. The man told Commissary Girard that he made the bomb himself. He expressed regret that he had not taken enough precautions to insure an explosion. He had tried to light the fuse with a cigarette, but the ashes upon the latter interfered. The arrival of the detective had compelled him to throw the bomb hastily, and by that act he had expected to explode it. He spoke clearly and in a decided tone.

The culprit was miserably dressed, and a razor and brush were found upon him, so it is supposed he is a barber's assistant. It is said his family lived a long time at Montmartre, where active inquiries are proceeding.

The news of the outrage spread rapidly in Paris, and many fear that it portends a renewal of an active anarchist campaign.

Suicide with Carbolic Acid.

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 6.—John Cran, aged 39, of 120 Eaton street, killed himself with carbolic acid some time during the night. His body was found in the parlor at his home. He left a note stating that he was tired of life. Cran had been out of work a long time. He recently lost six children. A wife and two children survive him.

Brutally Beaten by a Highwayman.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Sept. 6.—Paul Raynock, while on his way to Mt. Carmel for a physician for his sick wife, was attacked by a highwayman. His skull was terribly crushed, and but for the arrival of several miners, who were returning from work, he would have been killed. The shock will prove fatal to his wife.

Americans Acquitted on a Murder Charge.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—A dispatch has been received at the state department from D. Lynch Pringle, charge d'affaires at Guatemala, announcing the discharge by the authorities of Robert J. Breckenridge and C. C. Goff, both citizens of the United States. These men were arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the murder, on July 16, of P. O. D. Brooks, cashier of an agency company at Livingston and said to be a young American. In a recent report to the department on the subject Mr. Pringle said both Breckenridge and Goff were persons of standing and employes of the agency from which the money was stolen, and he expressed the hope that the matter would be fairly investigated so that the two men could be exonerated from any suspicion of being implicated.

Brave Officer Prevents a Lynching.

NEW WHATCOM, Wash., Sept. 6.—While the sheriff was preparing to bring R. H. Straub, who killed Leo Sauterman, from Blakely Island to New Whatcom for safe keeping a mob had been organized to lynch him, and followed him to the wharf. A launch to take the prisoner across arrived just in time, and Lieutenant Carden, its commander, confronted the crowd of fifty armed men and announced that he would shoot any man who fired on the United States flag or upon any man under its protection. The mob retreated and the lynching was prevented.

Rear End Trolley Car Collision.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 6.—There was a rear end collision between trolley cars at the corner of Market and Broad streets. The forward car, No. 13, came to a sudden stop, and before the motorman of car 14 could stop his car crashed into the rear end of the car ahead of him. The rear platform and the front platform of the cars were crushed in. Mrs. David Simon, living at Milburn, was caught between the seats and badly crushed, and received internal injuries. A number of other persons in the cars were slightly injured.

THE CASE OF WALLER.

Our Government Will Not Get All the Facts for a Month.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The state department has been advised that the record in the Waller court martial, for which the French authorities found it necessary to send to Madagascar, is expected to reach Aden, on the Red sea, about the 12th inst. After its arrival, it is supposed, some time will be required for its transmittal to Paris, and still more before it can reach Washington. If it is decided to have it examined here, so that it is expected to be at least a month before the department can be in full possession of all the facts in the case.

In all probability no further step will be taken by the department in this matter until this examination shall be made. There is a growing feeling in the department that France has purposely sought delay in producing this record in the hope of causing the United States to make a peremptory and unconditional demand for Waller's release. It is believed that if made this demand would be granted, and that if granted Waller would be deprived of all chance of securing an indemnity and the restoration of his land concession.

Without an examination of the record, which could not be demanded after his release, it would be impossible to show that Waller had been unjustly deprived of his property. The department is using every effort to avoid falling into this trap, while at the same time it is determined to protect Waller in all his interests. The department is understood to be in receipt of the full statement of the case as supplied by the commander of the Casdine. It is believed that the irritation of the French authorities at Tamatave was really aroused by his investigation into this case rather than by his failure to salute the French flag.

Arrested on a Forgery Charge.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 6.—Late yesterday afternoon a young man, supposed to be Fred F. Marr, of Albany, N. Y., although giving the name of W. E. Brooks, of Washington, D. C., was committed for court by Justice Murray on the double charge of forgery and attempting to obtain $1,000 by means of forgery. August 31 Marr is said to have deposited $50 at the National Mechanics' bank in this city under the name of Brooks. Sept. 3 he endeavored to cash a check for $1,000 on the National Capital bank, of Washington. Payment was refused, but the National Mechanics' bank took the check for collection. The National Capital bank said the check was forged. Marr went to the National Mechanics' bank yesterday afternoon and drew a check for $1,050, which would include both the Washington check and the $50 deposit. Instead of paying, the National Mechanics' bank called Detective Hagan, who arrested Marr.

Nebraska's Single Standard Democrats.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 6.—When State Chairman Martin, of Omaha, called the second Nebraska Democratic state convention to order yesterday 631 enthusiastic delegates greeted him with applause. It was considered quite significant, in the light of recent developments, that 631 out of a total representation of 634 delegates should be present when the convention was convened, and it was fully evident that while the party in the state is divided on financial lines, the so called hard money element lose little in members or dignity as compared with the element of the party which held its convention last month under the auspices of the free silver leaders of the state at Omaha. The resolutions strongly indorse the financial attitude of President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle. The following nominations were made: For supreme judge, T. G. Mahoney, for regents of the State University, W. H. Ashby and John H. Ames.

Father and Son Charged with Murder.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Sept. 6.—Abraham Baer, of Cambridge, was arrested yesterday, charged with the murder of Louis Sindler, who mysteriously disappeared about six weeks ago. Warrants are also out for Isaac and Louis Baer, sons of the prisoner, who are accused of complicity in the alleged crime. It is said that the accused men had a postal order cashed which the missing man had in his possession when last seen. Sindler lived in Baltimore and has a family in Russia.

Death of a Noted Jesuit.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Sept. 6.—Rev. Robert Fulton, S. J., died of apoplexy at Santa Clara college Wednesday night. He was nearly 70 years old, and for the last five years has been ailing. He came to California from Boston in the hope that the genial climate of this state might prove beneficial to his health, but it was too late. The deceased was a distinguished member of the Jesuit Order and held all the highest offices in the order except that of general. He was a native of Virginia.

Murder to Cover Forgery.

DUNDEE, Mich., Sept. 6.—A case which was brought against Ed Larkins for forging the name of James Merrill, colored, to a quit claim of some property which is held by Larkins was made clear yesterday by the finding of the body of Mrs. Merrill, whom it was supposed that Larkins had murdered in order to obtain her interest in the property. Larkins protests innocence and is much in fear of lynching.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

Eleven thousand children have been turned away from the public schools of Chicago owing to lack of accommodations.

Ex-County Treasurer Finnan, whose term of office expired on Monday, is declared to be $18,000 short by the experts who examined his books at Paulding, O.

At a conference in New York twenty of the biggest tobacco manufacturers in the country decided to go into the business of making cigarettes, in opposition to the trust.

Representatives of twenty-six window glass manufacturing firms met at Pittsburg yesterday and formed the Pittsburg window glass company and elected H. Sellers McKee president.

George Blackburn, one of the best known criminals in Ohio, and who has been in the penitentiary at Columbus almost continuously since 1878, escaped from the penitentiary yesterday. He was a trusty.

THE TRIAL OF DURRANT.

It Is Still Attracting Crowds of Curiosity Seekers.

THE ALLEGED MOTIVE A "FAKE."

Young Wolfe, Who It Was Said Would Give Most Damaging Evidence Against the Accused, Declares He Knows Nothing Against Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—The Durrant trial still continues to attract big crowds who are willing to stand for hours at a time just to catch a glimpse of the little mild faced, boyish looking individual accused of two fiendish murders.

In reference to the story to the effect that Durrant had told Clarence Wolfe, an intimate friend, of his intention to ruin Blanche Lamont, The Chronicle prints the following statement from Wolfe:

"I don't see," said Wolfe, "how such a story originated. I am at a loss to know where it came from. Not a line of the article is true, not a line. I am not, and never have been, an intimate friend of Theodore Durrant. I have known him a long time, but I was not in any way intimate with him. We were friendly enough, but seldom met. I rarely had any conversation with him, unless we met at some kind of a church gathering. I know nothing against Durrant."

The most important witness was Dr. Barrett, who testified that the post mortem examination on the body of Miss Lamont showed a cruel rumor circulated at the time of the murder as to the dead girl's condition to be unfounded, as no evidence of assault accompanying the murder was found.

Most of yesterday's sessions were devoted to a description of the diagram of Emanuel church introduced as exhibits by both sides. Both prosecution and defense had had drawings of the church made to show the exact spot where Blanche Lamont was murdered. Each attorney wished his drawing only to be introduced, and the greater part of the day was spent in wrangling over the respective merits. The only witnesses examined were the draughtsmen who prepared the diagram.

As the taking of testimony proceeds interest in the trial continues. People seem hungry for details, and even unimportant statements by witnesses are eagerly listened to by those fortunate enough to obtain admission to the court room.

In the event of a repetition of the struggling of the crowds around the entrance of the court room, the police have arranged to have a line of policemen extending down the corridors, and allow only those to pass who have business at the trial.

An Italian Will Succeed Mgr. Satolli.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 6.—Regarding the elevation of Mgr. Satolli to the cardinalate, Dr. O'Gorman, of the Washington University, said: "My personal opinion is that the monsignor will probably be made a cardinal in the near future, but just when, of course, no one can tell. After this great honor has been conferred upon him he will remain in this country for some time, perhaps a few months, until his successor is named. Mgr. Satolli's successor would decidedly not be an American. His successor will be an Italian."

Death of a Veteran Engineer.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Sept. 6.—Peter Styers, said to be the oldest engineer in the country, who has been frequently honored by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, died yesterday, aged 73 years. He ran engines on the Lehigh Valley, the Reading and the Jersey Central lines for forty-six years, and never had an accident. Railroaders have computed that he ran locomotives a distance equivalent to forty times around the globe.

Azote's Remarkable Mile.

GALESBURG, Ills., Sept. 6.—Azote went a remarkable mile yesterday afternoon against his record of 2.05¼. He was driven by Andy McDowell, with Ferdinand as a running mate, driven by Dan Campbell. The first quarter was made in 29¾, the half in 1.01½. In going the third quarter Azote faced a cool wind, and reached the quarter pole in 1.34. Coming home he made a fine spurt, and came under the wire in 2.04¾.

Heavy Floods in Mexico.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Sept. 6.—Information has reached here that the town of Abasolo, in Mexico, a place of 800 inhabitants, was almost entirely washed away on Sunday afternoon, but fifteen houses remaining. Three miles away, at the village of Rodriguez, every house was carried away. Further down, below Jiminez, at the Hacienda of Encenas, the flood destroyed estimated at $15,000.

Convicted of Drugging and Robbing a Man.

YORK, Pa., Sept. 6.—Charles Still, a constable and detective of this city for ten years, was found guilty of administering stupefying drugs with criminal intent and robbery. The evidence showed that Still administered a powder to Herbert J. Stough, a companion, with whom he had been drinking, and robbed him of $39.

The French Wheat Crop.

PARIS, Sept. 6.—The official report of the French wheat crop shows 120,000,000 hectolitres, as against 121,000,000 in 1894. The grain market here weakened upon the issuance of the report, as it was expected that the crop of 1895 would not exceed 114,000,000 hectolitres.

Convicting the Kucheng Murderers.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 6.—The inquiry into the massacre at Kucheng is proceeding to the satisfaction of the American and British consuls. There have been a number of important convictions. Among those condemned are some of the ringleaders of the riot.

To Fill a Vacancy in Congress.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Sept. 6.—Governor Altgeld has issued a proclamation calling a special election for representative in the Eighteenth Illinois district on Nov. 5, to succeed Frederick Remann, deceased.

An old-fashioned way of getting there. Slow and safe, but hard work. Most women, have got beyond this kind of traveling—found something better.

Now why can't you look at that other old-fashioned proceeding in the same light—washing things with soap and hard rubbing. That's slow enough and tiresome enough, everybody knows, and it's not as safe as washing with Pearline. It's really destructive, in fact, the wear of that constant rubbing. Break away from these antiquated ideas. Use modern methods. Pearline saves at every point.

Send it Back Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back. 457 JAMES PYLE, New York.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATS

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 6.—At the convention of Democratic clubs of Pennsylvania President Chauncey F. Black, of York, and Secretary John D. Worman, of Philadelphia were unanimously reelected for the seventh consecutive time. The meeting next year will be held in Erie. Everything moved along smoothly until near the close, when considerable opposition developed to the committee's report, paragraph in the resolutions commending Governor Hastings, Senator Penrose, J. McCreary Bunnell of Philadelphia, one of the seven original Cleveland men, and the law creating the court, which was passed by the Legislature.

The opposition to the Hastings-Penrose-Bunnell club of Judge McClung's own city. It spread to the delegates from the interior and fully an hour and a half was spent in discussion. The opponents of the paragraph would not accept the high attorney of Judge McClung's own city, but wanted to mention other parts of the state to avoid indirectly find fault with him. The regular Democratic convention met in Williamsport next week, and the statement was made that there would probably be between five or thirty candidates for the six judicial places on the ticket. The friends of Judge McClung finally carried their point on a division by 105 to 189. President Black's retirement was probably the most significant assembly the association has had for a year.

Wife Murder and Suicide.

YORK, Pa., Sept. 6.—William H. Beaver committed a double tragedy yesterday and then put a bullet into his head and two into his breast. Jealousy prompted the deed. The Beavers resided in this city, but the tragedy occurred at Pleasureville, a village several miles beyond York, where the wife had been living with relatives since Tuesday. Beaver shot his wife because she refused to return home with him. The murderer fired two shots, one of which apparently missed its mark.

Denial from Rustem Pasha.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Rustem Pasha, Turkish ambassador to Great Britain, denies the authenticity of the dispatch purporting to have been sent by him to the Turkish minister of foreign affairs, in which was given an account of an alleged interview between him and Lord Salisbury regarding the proposal of control by an international commission over Armenian affairs. Rustem Pasha says that no such despatch has been written by him.

Moonshiners Killed by Revenue Officers.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 6.—A report comes from Tracy City of a fight in which two illicit distillers were killed by revenue officers in the mountains near that place. The names of the men killed are Jay Rody and Jim Woodle. Rody was a brother of the notorious moonshiner Rody, killed some time since, who was tried for murder in the federal court here at one time and for a long time was known as the terror of the mountains.

Dr. Fraker Fully Identified.

RICHMOND, Mo., Sept. 6.—Dr. Fraker, who is in jail here on the charge of attempting to defraud insurance companies, has been recognized by a score of people. The recognition was mutual. Dr. Fraker calling several by name and conversing with them. There are five counts against him, the aggregate penalty being thirty-five years in the penitentiary. In case the doctor is released on bail the amount of his bond will be at least $20,000.

Alleged Chicken Thieves Held.

BRIDGTON, N. J., Sept. 6.—Howard Cawman, Levi Coulter, Jesse Fagans and Bedford Gandy were given a hearing on the charge of chicken stealing and receiving stolen chickens. Fagans was held in $12 and the others in $500 each for court.

Extensive Gold Land in Mexico.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 6.—Extensive gold beds have been discovered in the state of Oaxaca and reports of the richness are now received from American experts.

Growth of the Southern Cotton Mills.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 6.—The Manufacturer's Record, one of the announcements of which paper's growth in the south during the past three months exceed that of any similar period in the history of the south, will say that 100 cotton mill buildings on this section of the country were reported seventy seven of which will have an aggregate of over 1,000,000 spindles. This will be added to the 8,000,000 spindles in cotton mills that had been reported prior to May 31, makes a total of about 9,000,000 spindles to be added to the number now in operation in the south. If these mills are all built as indications promise, the aggregate investment will represent something over $15,000,000.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. INTO DARKEST AFRICA

The Hazardous Venture of a Band of American Missionaries.

The recent brutal butchery of Christians in China does not seem to deter other missionaries from seeking dangerous fields in uncivilized and semicivilized countries for the spread of the gospel. In spite of the dangers which await them a small party of religious workers, composing the African Inland mission, has just set out from Philadelphia for the region of the Sudan, the most dangerous mission field in the world.

REV. PETER C. SCOTT.

The party is under the leadership of the Rev. Peter Cameron Scott, an enthusiastic and determined young clergyman. He has spent seven of the 28 years of his life in Africa, two years of that time in the interior of the dark continent. Among those who will accompany him on his perilous mission is his sister, Miss Margaret Scott, who has recently returned from missionary work on the Kongo river. Before beginning their pilgrimage to darkest Africa they expressed the belief that they would be successful in overcoming the superstitions and bitter prejudices of the savages and were full of hope and courage.

It is the purpose of Mr. Scott and his associates to land at Mombasa, on the eastern coast of Africa, and proceed at once to Mount Kilima-Njaro, where a station will be established. From this point the missionaries will work northward along the mountains of the Sudan.

Little if any Christian missionary work has hitherto been done in this vast region of eastern Africa, where there are 90,000,000 people wholly without the teachings of the gospel. It is acknowledged to be the most perilous mission field in the world, both on account of the climate and the bitter hatred and hostility of the Moslems, who hold almost undisputed sway in that portion of the dark continent. Facing the dangers of disease, the savage natives and the bloodthirsty and maraunding Arabs, this little band of Christian teachers carry their lives in their hands, and that some or all of them will be sacrificed on the altar of their devotion seems more than probable.

Simply Following Instructions.

"You say that I'm not altogether objectionable to your parents," he said ruefully.

"No," she replied. "Father and mother both speak very highly of you."

"Then why does that big dog assault me every time I come near and chew a piece out of my clothes?"

"Oh, you mustn't mind Brutus. He's trained to do that. Aunty has gotten almost enough samples from him to make a lovely patchwork quilt."—Washington Star.

Playing on the Ruins.

"These firemen must be a frivolous set," said Mr. Spillkins, who was reading a paper.

"Why so?"

"I read in the paper that after a fire was under control the firemen played all night on the ruins. Why didn't they go home and go to bed like sensible men, instead of romping about like children?"—Texas Siftings.

A Raison d'Etre.

"I wonder," said the Washington Baseball club gloomily, "what we two or three chrome tailenders are on earth for anyhow."

"Great Scott!" exclaimed the New York nine, "we fellows have got to have somebody we can beat, haven't we?"—Washington Star.

The Duke and the Duchess.

"Ha! I am told your family made its money in trade."

"'Tis false! They were counterfeiters."

"Thank heaven!"

He Believed It.

"I read the other day," said the man who does not go, "that baseball was invented by the Indians."

"I guess it is so," said the man who rows. "And we got a lot of wooden ones ourselves."—Indianapolis Journal.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and ends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adopting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

WURTSBORO.

Brought Home for Burial—Gone to Middletown—The Public School—Picnic—Married—Cut by a Catfish—A New Road Projected—Big Vegetables.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fredd, of near Wurtsboro, died in New York, and was buried in Sylvan Cemetery here, on Sunday, Aug. 25. His age was about 35 years.

—Woodruff & Demerest, who have successfully conducted a vegetable market here this summer, have moved to Middletown, where they have an abundance of work. Both are good carpenters.

—School opened, Tuesday, Sept. 3, with Geo. D. Scott as principal, assisted by Misses Bessie Strong and Anna Tice.

—The Reformed and Methodist Sunday schools, teachers, friends and the Wurtsboro Band all went to Phillipsport, last Friday, by way of the D. and H. barge. A splendid dinner was served, and J. V. M. delivered an historical address. Altogether it was a big time. Upwards of 200 persons participated in the picnic.

—Frank Gumaer has returned from Liberty, where he has been employed this summer.

—The city boarders have nearly all returned to their homes.

—George S. Helm and Miss Laura Harris, daughter of Rev. D. S. Harris, of the Reformed Church, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Wednesday. Only the immediate relatives were present.

—Rumor has it that there will surely be at least another wedding here ere long, and possibly two.

—Chas. Henty, our barber, while dressing a catfish, last week, ran one of the horns in a finger of his right hand. The wound was very painful for a time, but he can now work.

—There are several houses and one shop vacant in town now.

—Mrs. Jacob Helm's condition is about the same—critical.

—Will Stanton takes charge of Glen Wild school, Sept. 5

—James Cunningham is teaching the school at Goddefroy's.

—J. V. M. has vegetables growing which now measure as follows: Henderson's Ponderosa tomato, 17 inches in circumference; mangold wurzel beet, over two feet long and 19 inches in circumference; yellow Swedish rutabaga, two feet in circumference. He also has bushels of onions that will average more than one pound each.

—C. A. Stanton has erected a new street lamp in front of his store. He has it lighted evenings.

—Wm. Stanton has began work on his new house foundation in earnest. Five men are employed —Sullivan county club men have been looking over the ground, with an idea of building a road from town to the club by way of the Ira Sarine valley. It would certainly prove a good route.

—The Ladies Dime Society of the Reformed Church realized over $140 at its fair, and wish to extend thanks to all who helped them.

—John H. Holmes, school tax collector, will receive the same at one per cent. for two weeks, beginning Sept. 2nd.

SOUTH CENTREVILLE.

Opening of School—Sociable—A Light Frost—Other Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—School opened at this place, Tuesday, Sept. 3rd, with Miss Mary E. Reed as teacher. There was a fair attendance.

—A sociable will be held at Mr. Martin Bennett's, Thursday evening, for the benefit of the pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

—Miss Frankie Mapes, of Port Jervis, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. E. Robertson, has returned home.

—Mrs. C. H. Everett and son, of Haverstraw, have been visiting at G. P. Everett's and other friends in this vicinity.

—Quite a number from this place attended the camp meeting at Ridgebury, this week, and pronounce it excellent.

—Mr. F. H. Van Dewort has dug a well at his barn to supply water for his cattle.

—There was a light frost in this vicinity last Sunday night.

—Mrs. E. Mulford, an aged lady of this place, who has been quite ill, is now rapidly improving.

—Miss Carrie Barrett, of Walden, is visiting at Martin Bennett's.

The Colored Camp Meeting—Personal and Local Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—The colored people who have been holding camp meeting in Conklin's grove have returned to their homes in Middletown and elsewhere, Monday of this week. The people of this place regret that they have gone but hope to see them here again next year. The attendance at the meetings was very good, considering the weather and the many attractions elsewhere. The jubilee concert which was held Saturday evening, was well attended and very highly enjoyed.

—School opened at the Rome school house, this week. Miss Beyea, of Otisville, has charge of the school for the coming term.

—Charles Aldrich started, Wednesday morning, for Irvington, where he will attend school this year.

MOUNT HOPE.

Very Large Potatoes—Officers Elected—Numerous Items of Personal Interest.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Mount Hope is the champion town for potatoes, this year, as Messrs. J. Edward and Sidney Smith have grown them on the meadows one foot in length. John Haggerty, James Douglass and Leonard Beyea also raised a good many potatoes that weigh over a pound a piece.

—The following officers were elected at the business meeting of the C. E. Society: President, Mr. Elliott Halstead; Vice-President, Miss Belle Hatch; Secretary, Mr. David Hull.

—Mrs. Hartford Greenleaf and daughter, of New York city, were guests at the homes of her brothers-in-law near this village last week.

—Mr. G. K. Jeffers has moved from Mr. Johnson's house to Mr. Charles Kirby's on the Howells road.

—Mrs. Sidney Smith has a night blooming cereus which has had three blossoms and has still about a dozen more buds.

—Mrs. Woodward has lost a tan colored dog. The finder returning the same will receive five dollars reward.

—Mrs. Jacob Baker, of Washingtonville, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Oliver Moore.

—Mr. and Mrs. Selah Corwin are spending a few days here at Mrs. Corwin's home.

—Mr. Fuller lost a cow, Tuesday afternoon, which died after a few days sickness.

—Miss Kennedy, of Brooklyn, is the guest of Miss Cornelia Conklin.

—Mrs. Morrison and children and Miss Folsom, who boarded with Mrs. Halstead, have returned home.

WATERLOO MILLS

Picnic—Festival—A Fishing Trip—Opening of School—Other Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—The Mt. Salem Baptist Sunday School picnic was a success, both financially and socially. There was a large attendance and the net receipts were $9 30.

—Some from this vicinity attended the union picnic at Midway Park, last week. All report a good time.

—We hear there is to be festival held on the lawn of the Mt. Salem Baptist Church on the evening of Sept. 13th.

—Harry Ferguson, who has been on the sick list for the past three weeks, is able to be out again.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Buckbee, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Wilson and Mr. H. Wilcox, of Port Jervis, drove to Yankee Pond, last week, starting Thursday and returning Saturday. They report a good time, but not many fish because of the low water in the ponds.

—The grading around the church seems to be satisfactory to some while others think it not much of an improvement. We think it a good job.

—The school opened at this place, last Monday noon, in charge of Ida Van Sickle, the former teacher.

—Mrs. L. Decker and son, Arthur, were in Port Jervis, Monday.

—Misses Clara VanInwegen and Emma Ferguson started Monday morning for Stroudsburgh for a week's visit among friends and relatives.

—Arthur Decker spent Sunday with his friend, George Clark, of Unionville.

A Note From the Editor.

The editor of a leading paper writes: "If you had seen my wife last June and were to see her to-day you would not believe she was the same woman. Heavy Crops—Broke His Ankle—A Sudden Death—Personal Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—Mr. Benjamin Halt expects to have a yield of about 5,000 baskets of peaches from his orchard, this fall. His potato crop will be 500 bushels.

—Mr. John T. Decker met with quite a serious accident, last week. While packing apples he lost his equilibrium and fell to the ground, fracturing his ankle badly.

—Our public school opened on Tuesday, with Miss Sally D. Farley re-engaged as teacher.

—The Misses Whitaker, from Waverly, N. Y., are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

—Mrs. John Meade, of New York city, is spending a couple of weeks with her uncle, M. D. Meade.

—Mr. Charles W. Elston is at Asbury Park for a month's recreation. The many friends of Mr. Elston hope on his return to find him much improved in health.

—The relatives and neighbors of Mrs. John DeWitt were greatly shocked to hear of her sudden death on Monday night. Mrs. DeWitt was taken ill, Monday, and died at 1:20 o'clock, that night. The deceased leaves a husband and one son, Willie, and also a daughter, Sagaline, who have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement. The funeral services were held, Thursday, at her late home.

Stomach and Bowel Complaints are best relieved by the timely use of DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure. Insist on having this preparation Dont take any other. W. D. Olney.

Giving Away Shoes

"Those little happy boys' shoes never wear out," said a mother to us the other day.

Then give them away as Tommy outgrows them. Pretty good shoes, aren't they?

The good wearing qualities of our School Shoes account for our large and increasing trade. Good shoes for $1 and up.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the State of New York are requested to unite in sending three delegates and three alternates from each Assembly district to a State Convention, to be held at Syracuse on Tuesday Sept 24th, 1895, at 12 o'clock noon, for placing in nomination candidates to be voted for at the ensuing general election, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention

J W HINSLEY Chairman
Attest: JOHN B JUDSON, Secretary.

The New York World publishes a Cuba dispatch giving the details of a massacre by Spanish troops at the town of Baire, which equals in its shocking brutality and bloodiness that by the Japanese at Port Arthur. The Spanish soldiers were under the command of Gen. Garrido, one of the cruelest tyrants that ever ruled in Cuba, and on entering the town were given the wildest license for sack, pillage and rapine. Neither age nor sex was spared. A mother, after being forced to look on while her six-year-old daugter was butchered, was shot through the head. A widow, who remonstrated when her house was looted, was killed by a bayonet thrust. A young woman was hanged because it was said she was betrothed to an insurgent officer. These are only a few of the brutalities of which the Spanish troops, urged on by their officers, were guilty The Spanish authorities are trying to suppress the facts concerning the butchery, but if the shocking story is confirmed in all its harrowing details, a tide of popular indignation will sweep over this country so deep and strong that neutrality laws cannot prevail against it, and sympathy for Cuba, now a mere sentiment, will become an active force that will compel the administration to grant recognition to the patriots who are fighting to free Cuba from the curse and tyranny of Spanish rule.

THE ITINERANTS CLUB.

An Organization of Methodist Ministers to Visit Middletown.

The Itinerants Club of the New York Conference of the M. E Church will visit Middletown on Oct. 1st, and remain in the city three days.

The club was recently organized, and its chief object is to further the education of the younger ministers in the conference, and to examine and help along those taking the probationary course in preparation for the ministry.

It is expected that about one hundred and fifty ministers will be present and among them several representative preachers of the Methodist denomination who will deliver lectures. Meetings will be held both day and evening on Oct. 1st, 2nd and 3d at St. Paul's Church, to which the public will be invited.

A FALSE ALARM.

Thought They Had Surrounded a Burglar, but It Proved to Be an Industrious Clerk.

As Recorder Bradner was on his way home, last night, he heard a noise in the cellar of Mr. C. D. Hanford's shoe store on North street. Listening through the iron grating in the sidewalk, he heard the sound of heavy blows and cracking wood. No light could be seen, and Letter Carrier Northrup appearing on the scene, the Recorder enlisted his services in rounding up three policemen. Armed with revolvers and a bayonet procured from the collection of relics in the post office, the guardians of property were about to commence an assault on the place, when an employe of the store calmly walked up the stairway with a lighted lamp in his hand. He had been cleaning up some rubbish and breaking up some old shoe cases in the cellar.

A VALUABLE INVENTION.

A Great Labor Saving Device for Use in the Kitchen.

Mrs. M. L. Burtis is now, and for two weeks longer, will be at the store of Geo. A. Swaim & Son where she is exhibiting the champion egg beater, a woman's invention and a great laboring saving device that ought to be in every kitchen.

Mrs. Burtis will put all the ingredients of a cake into the machine at once and in from one to three minutes will hav ready to put in the pan.

Ladies are invited to call at any time and see the invention in use and hear its merits described by Mrs Burtis.

A GOSHEN MAN'S POCKETBOOK.

Found in a Flush Tank at the Commercial Hotel—Probably Thrown There by a Pickpocket

When Mr. Charles Higham, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, was about to close up his house at 1 o'clock, this morning, he noticed the water running in one of the closets and attempted to shut it off but was unable to do so.

He made an examination of the flush tank and found in it a large pocketbook, such as are carried in the inside pocket, which had interfered with the working of the valve

The pocketbook was thoroughly saturated with water, and he left it to dry until morning, when, upon examination, he found in it the name of Edwin Jay Dikeman, of Goshen.

A cash and expense account in the book showed the last entry to have been made yesterday There were several cards in the book, but no money.

It is almost certain that a slick pickpocket relieved Mr. Dikeman of his pocketbook at the races, yesterday, came to Middletown and after taking out the money threw the book into the flush tank at the Commercial.

Mr. Higham remembers having seen two strangers enter the hotel, go into the toilet room and leaving without speaking to any one.

HYMENEAL.

Boyd-Adams.

Middletown has had few prettier weddings than that of Miss Grace Cooper Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Adams, and Mr. Frederick Newton Boyd, which was celebrated at the First Presbyterian Church, last night, in the presence of a large and fashionable gathering of relatives and friends.

The church had been tastefully decorated for the occasion with palms and white flowers, and presented a very attractive appearance. Promptly at 7 o'clock, the hour appointed for the ceremony, the bridesmaids entered the church from the parlors and marched slowly down the right aisle to the entrance. The ushers at the same time marched down the left aisle. The bridal party was in waiting and the bridal procession was formed. The ushers came first, followed by the bridesmaids. Then came the little maid of honor, Irene Dolson, and the bride leaning on her father's arm. The groom and his best man, Mr. John M. Houston, met the bride at the altar. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Thomas Gordon, D. D., assisted by Rev. Chas. Beattie, D. D, was most impressive.

The fair bride, who never looked more charming, was gowned in rich ivory satin, trimmed with Duchesse lace, and made with a court train. She wore a bridal veil and carried a beautiful feather fan.

The bridesmaids were Misses Cecil F. Dolson, Nellie C. Purdy, Lillian M. Adams and Etta M. Knight, of this city, Miss Laura Tillson, of Highland, and Miss Caroline Halgin, of Fishkill. Three of them wore white and three yellow dresses,—organdie over taffeta silk. They carried leghorn hats filled with flowers.

The ushers were Messrs. Fred S. Rogers and R. Brewster Beattie, of this city; G. R. Jones, of Binghamton; George M. McChesney and George Seaman, of New York, and Dr. Irwin H. Boyd, of Philadelphia.

The reception at the pleasant home of the bride's parents, Old Orchard Place, was attended by about 250 guests and was a most enjoyable affair. The spacious house had been made still more spacious by adding an enclosed platform on the west side so that it was not at all crowded. Carrying out the idea of a yellow and white wedding the floral decorations were golden rod and white flowers. The bridal party, while receiving the congratulations of friends, stood under a beautiful floral pagoda at one end of the parlor.

Refreshments were served by Day, of Newark.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents. Among them were a case of silver from the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Boyd; case of silver, eighty-four pieces, the heads of departments of Sweetser, Pembroke & Co.; gold lined berry set, Sweetser, Pembroke & Co.; lace fan, Robert Lockhart, a director in the Albany Dry Goods Company; point lace handkerchief, Thomas Rosevear, of James McCreery & Co.; silver and glass vase, Calhoun, Robbins & Co.; French china dinner and tea set, Middletown friends; lamp, employes of First National Bank. Other gifts were cut glass in bewildering array, silverware, lamps, candelabra, desk, chairs, check from bride's father, etc., etc.

The bride's gifts to her bridesmaids were pearl pins and the groom gave the best man and ushers pearl scarf pins.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Tuthill, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. James Throckmorton of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Z Batten, of Elizabeth; N. J., Mr. John A. Mapes, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. N. Demarest and family, of Chester; Mr. William Mapes and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur DuBois, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gearn, Mrs. Alexander Colden, Miss Susan Colden, all of Newburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Root, of Binghamton; Miss Edith Kenna, of Thomaston, Conn; Miss Perle Esselstyne, of Rhinebeck; Miss Alice Traver, of Hudson; Mrs. Caroline Cooper, of Goshen.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd left town on the 10:40 train for New York. They expect to be absent about two weeks and will visit New London and Eastern seaside resorts. Friends who accompanied them to the station lined the track with torpedoes and gave them the noisiest kind of a send off.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd enter on their married life under most favorable auspices and with the best wishes of hosts of friends for their happiness and prosperity.

Wedding Invitations.

Ball Players Stranded in England.

Al. Lawson is again stranded in England with a base ball team. The Boston Amateur Base Ball Club went to pieces, last week, and the players are without means to return to this country.

Accidents will happen. Be provided with Page's Climax Salve. It will cure a burn, scald, cut or bruise and have pain and Doctors' bills.

THE GOSHEN RACES.

Last Day of a Very Successful Meeting—The 2:24 Race Finished—Other Events Mr. Harriman's Generosity.

The fall meeting of the Orange County Driving Park Association closed, yesterday afternoon, with a fine card. There was an improvement in the starting judge, Mr. W. J. Sutton, of Newburgh, supplanting Mr. Gladding, of Hartford. The judges were Messrs. Geo. Grier, of Goshen; Chas. Brinkerhoff, of Fishkill, and Nathan J. Hubbard, of Chester.

The unfinished 2:24 trot was the first race on the card. The Middletown contingent pinned its faith and money on Ruprecht, but after Jube took one heat, Santos went out and captured the fourth and fifth heats easily.

The 2:45 trot was a walkover for the Ellenville colt, Legene, Carbenas being the only horse in the race able to save its distance.

The 2:19 pacing race was a struggle between B. H. D. and Monte Cristo. The former had the better staying qualities and had no trouble in winning after the second heat. This heat was the prettiest race of the meeting. B. H. D. and Monte Cristo raced like a team for the mile, only a short head dividing them at the wire.

Beyreuth was a red hot favorite for the 2:30 class and won in straight heats. Nora L was able to save her entrance money, and with an experienced driver might have been able to do better.

The consolation race for two-year-olds, for the money won by Mr. E. H. Harriman's Rival, on Tuesday, was won by Cienega, an Alcantara filly, owned by the same gentleman. He divided his winning equally between the other colts in the race, T. T. D, Eola and Chester Prince.

NOTES.

—D. B. Herrington, owner of Ruprecht, left his horse to be driven by Wm. Sargeant in yesterday's 2 24 class race, and went to Waverly, N. J., where he won the 2 15 pacing race with Attractive.

—B. B. Norton, the ex-rolley king, formerly of Brooklyn, but now of Newburgh, was an interested spectator at yesterday's races.

—One of the trustees of the Pine Bush Racing Association drove a half sister to Fitch Clark a mile in 3.01. The animal was hitched to an old-fashioned high wheel sulky, which threatened to go to pieces with every revolution of the wheels. A wooden gad assisted the mare in her wonderful effort. The exhibition served to put the crowd in excellent humor.

—Azote trotted the fastest mile of the season, yesterday, at Galesburg, Ill., time, 2.04¼, thus lowering his previous record of 2.05 made several weeks ago at Fleetwood.

A Lost Child Returned to Its Parents.

The little child found on Benjamin street, yesterday, and taken in charge by the police, was claimed, yesterday afternoon, by its parents. His name is Albert Deyo and his home is on Smith street.

Left Town on Foot.

A hostler from Goshen celebrated the victory of a horse which he had helped prepare for the race, yesterday, by coming to this city and getting drunk. He pleaded hard to get off and finally succeeded. He made a bee line for the county seat on foot.

The Modern Beauty.

Thrives on good food and sunshine, with pleanty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. If her system needs the cleaning action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant liquid laxative Sprup of Figs.

Which is worse, imprisonment for life or a life-long disease, like scrofula, for example? The former, certainly, would be preferable were it not that Ayer's Sarsaparilla can always come to the rescue and give the poor sufferer health, strength, and happiness.

Mr. A. A. Snyder, Supt. Poor Farm, Winneshiek Co., says:—Last winter Mr. Robert Leach used two boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and cured a large running sore on his leg. Had been under care of physicians for months without obtaining relief. W. D. Olney.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

The Last Band Concert—Business Changes—Committed Suicide in New York—Other Notes.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—The last band concert of the season, last night, was attended by one of the largest crowds ever at a band concert in this village. The concert was a fine one and the several solos were admirably played.

—Regular meeting of Cataracts at 8:30, to-night.

—W. S. Seeley and J. L. Rutan, who carried on a meat market under the firm name of Rutan & Co., have dissolved partnership. Mr. Rutan will continue the business. Seeley & Knapp, bakers, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Seeley, who bought Mr. Knapp's interest, will continue the business.

—Mr. Edward W. Hutchins, a brother of Mrs. Robert D. Snodgrass, who was formerly well known in this village, committed suicide in New York, last week, by jumping from the top of a seven-story building to the pavement. Ill health was the cause of the act.

—Mr. P. J. Donahue, of New York city, and Miss May Brown, of this village, were married in St. John's Church, Wednesday, by Rev. P. E. McCorry.

—Hon. R. C. Coleman's family have returned from their outing in the Adirondacks.

SENTENCES OF PRISONERS.

Judge Beattie Metes Out Justice to Offenders Who Had Pleaded Guilty or Had Been Convicted of Crime—The Grand Jury's Work.

County Court adjourned, yesterday. The Grand Jury was discharged at 10 o'clock.

The following indictments were found and upon the prisoner's plea of guilty the following sentences were imposed:

Jacob Hester, larceny, Elmira Reformatory; Edward Gaynor, burglary, one year in Albany Penitentiary; James Lynch and Patrick Dalton, burglary, five years in Sing Sing prison.

Michael Welch, convicted of shooting and severely wounding Thos. Robinson, of Newburgh, nine years and four months in Sing Sing; Robert Stevens, Edward Nelson and John Young, alias "Charles Armstrong," who stole shoes from a box car at Newburgh Junction, were each sent to the Elmira Reformatory; Michael Kane, robbery, one year in Albany Penitentiary; Frank Howell, forgery, one year in Albany Penitentiary; George VanSteenberg, grand larceny, one year in Albany Penitentiary.

The following prisoners were indicted, pleaded not guilty and were remanded for trial at the December term: James Graham, burglary, and Daniel Merritt, "stealing."

The Grand Jury failed to indict Hervey Hinde, of Highland Falls, accused of burglary, and the prisoner was discharged.

No indictment was found against L. L. Purdy, of the New Hampton hotel, who, it was charged, sold liquor without a license.

The case of Charles Vuolo, indicted for an assault on a little girl in this city, was put over till December, as was that of Samuel Harris, for breaking into Demorest's hotel at Warwick.

Nearly everyone needs a good tonic at this season. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one true tonic and blood purifier. 1

A hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation, which, if not speedily removed, may lead to chronic bronchitis. No prompter remedy can be found than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effect is immediate and the result permanent.

Must Slow Up.

The Traction Company has adopted a rule whereby motormen are required to stop their cars when approaching the curve beyond Bauer's Park, where two head and head collisions have occurred.

FINIS.

Love, bearing many burdens through the world,
Came to the place where burdens are laid down.
Smiling she stretched her patient hands for more.
"These things are past," said one, "take now thy crown!"

Love, always humble, when most beautiful,
Drew back, as if such guerdon to deplore,
To whom the rosy angel softly sighed,
"The crown of loving is to love the more."
—C. M. Packard in Youth's Companion.

THE CAR GHOST.

All draped with blue denim—the seaside cottage of my friend, Sara Pyne. She asked me to go there with her when she opened it to have it set in order for the summer. She confessed that she felt a trifle nervous at the idea of entering it alone. And I am always ready for an excursion. So much blue denim rather surprised me, because blue is not complimentary to Sarah's complexion—she always wears some shade of red, by preference. She perceived my wonder; she is very nearsighted, and therefore sees everything, by some sort of sixth sense.

"You do not like my portieres and curtains and table covers," said she. "Neither do I. But I did it to accommodate. And now he rests well in his grave, I hope."

"Whose grave, for pity's sake?"

"Mr. J. Billington Price."

"And who is he? He doesn't sound interesting."

"Then I will tell you about him," said Sara, taking a seat directly in front of one of those curtains. "Last autumn I was leaving this place for New York, traveling on the fast express train known as the Flying Yankee. Of course I thought of the Flying Dutchman and Wagner's musical setting of the uncanny legend, and how different things are in these days of steam, etc. Then I looked out of the window at the landscape, the horizon that seemed to wheel in a great curve as the train sped. Every now and then I had an impression at the 'tail of the eye' that a man was sitting in a chair three or four numbers in front of me on the opposite side of the car. Each time that I saw this shape I looked at the chair and ascertained that it was unoccupied. But it was an odd trick of vision. I raised my lorgnette, and the chair showed emptier than before. There was nobody in it certainly. But the more I knew that it was vacant the more plainly I saw the man, always with the corner of my eye. It made me nervous.

"When passengers entered the car, I dreaded lest they might take that seat. What would happen if they should? A bag was put in the chair—that made me uncomfortable. The bag was removed at the next station. Then a baby was placed in the seat. It began to laugh as though some one had gently tickled it. There was something odd about that chair—13 was its number. When I looked away from it, the impression was strong upon me that some person sitting there was watching me.

"Really, it would not do to humor such fancies. So I touched the electric button, asked the porter to bring me a table, and taking from my bag a pack of cards proceeded to divert myself with a game of patience. I was puzzling to put a seven of spades. 'Where can it go?' I murmured to myself. A voice behind me prompted, 'Play the four of diamonds on the five, and you can do it.' I started. The only occupants of the car besides me were a bridal couple, a mother with three little children and a typical preacher of one of the strictest sects. Who had spoken? 'Play up the four, madam,' repeated the voice. I looked fearfully over my shoulder. At first I saw a bluish cloud, like cigar smoke, but inodorous. Then the vision cleared, and I saw a young man whom I knew by a subtle intuition to be the occupant, seen and not seen, of chair No. 13. Evidently he was a traveling salesman—and a ghost. Of course a drummer's ghost sounds ridiculous—they're so extremely alive! Or else you would expect a dead drummer to be particularly dead and not 'walk.' This was a most commonplace looking ghost, cordial, pushing, business-like. At the same time his face had an expression of utter despair and horror which made him still more preposterous. Of course it is not nice to let a stranger speak to one, even on so impersonal a topic as a four of diamonds. But a ghost—there can't be any rule of etiquette about talking with a ghost! My dear, it was diaboliful. That forward creature showed me how to play all the cards and then begged me to lay them out again, in order that he might give me some clever points. I was too much amazed and disturbed to speak; I could only place the cards at his suggestion. Then I did so as not to appear to be insulting the empty air and he appeared to be a crazy woman. Presently the ghost spoke again and told me his story.

"'Madam,' he said, 'I have been traveling back and forth on this car ever since Feb. 22, 18—, seven months and 11 days. All this time I have not exchanged a word with any one. For a drummer that is pretty hard, you may believe. You know the story of the Flying Dutchman? Well, that is very nearly my case. A curse is upon me and will not be removed until some kind soul—But I'm getting ahead of my text. That day there were four of us, traveling for different houses. One of the boys was in wool, one in baking powder, one in hoods and shoes and myself in cotton goods. We met on the road, took seats together and fell into talking shop. Three fellows told big lies about their sales. Washington's birthday brought it was. The baking powder man used the amount of the bills of goods which he had sold better than a whole can of his stuff could have done. I admitted the straight truth, that I had not yet been able to make a sale. And then I swore—not in a light minded, chipper style of verbal trimmings, but a great, round, heaven defying oath—that I would sell a case of blue denims on that trip if it took me forever. We became dry with talk, and when the train stopped at Riverside we went out to have some beer. It is a queer town, you know—pardon me, I forgot that I was speaking to a lady. Well, we had to run to get aboard. I missed my footing, fell under the wheels, and the next thing that I knew they were holding an inquest over my remains, while I disembodied, was sitting on a corner of the undertaker's table, wondering which of the coroner's jury was likely to want a case of blue denims.

"Then I remembered my wicked oath and understood that I was a soul doomed to wander until I could succeed in selling that bill of goods. I spoke once or twice, offering the denims under value, but nobody noticed me. Verdict: Accidental death, by negligence of deceased. Railroad corporation not to blame. Deceased got out for beer at his own risk. The other drummers took charge of the remains and wrote a beautiful letter to my relatives about my social qualities and my impressive conversation. I wish it had been less impressive that time. I might have lied about my sales, or I might have said that I hoped for better luck. But after that oath there was nothing for it. Back and forth, back and forth, on this road, in Chair No. 13, to all eternity. Nobody sees me but my fellow-ghosts. They sit on my knees—I'm playing in luck when it is a nice baby, as it was this afternoon! They pile wraps, rugs, even railway literature on me. They play cards under my nose—and what duffers some of them are! You, madam, are the first person who has perceived me, and therefore I ventured to speak to you, meaning no offense. I am sure that you are sorry for me. Now, if you recall the story of the Flying Dutchman, he was saved by the charity of a good woman. In fact, Senta married him. Now I'm not asking anything of that size. I see that you wear a wedding ring, and no doubt you make a man happy. I wasn't a marrying man myself and naturally am not a marrying ghost. And that has nothing to do with the matter anyway. But if you could—I don't suppose you would have any use for them—but if you were disposed to do a turn of good, solid Christian charity—I should be everlastingly grateful, and you may have that case of denims at $72.50. And that quality is quoted today at $90. Does it go, madam?'

"The speech of the poor ghost was not very eloquent, but his eyes had an intense, eager glare which was terrible. Something—pity, fear, I do not know what—compelled me. I decided to do without that white and gold evening cloak. Instead I gave $72.50 to the ghost and took from him a receipt for the sum, signed J. Billington Price. Then he smiled contentedly, thanked me with emotion and returned to chair No. 13. Several times on the journey, although I did not perceive him again, I felt dazed. When the train arrived at New York and I, with the other passengers, disembarked, it seemed to me that a strong hand passed under my elbow, steadying me down the steps. As I walked the length of the station my bag—not heavy at any time—appeared to become weightless. I believe that the parlor car ghost walked beside me carrying the bag, whose handle still remained in my other hand. Indeed once or twice I thought I felt the touch of cold fingers against mine. Since then I have no reason to suppose that the poor ghost is not at rest. I hope he is.

"But I never expected or wished for the blue denims. The next day, however, a dray arranging to a great wholesale house backed up to our door and delivered a case of denims, with a receipted bill for the same. What was I to do? I could not go about selling blue denims. I could not give them away without creating comment. So I furnished the cottage with them, and you know the effect on my complexion. Pity me, dear! And credit me, envious woman as I am, with having saved a soul at the expense of my own vanity. My story is told. What do you think about it?"—Elizabeth Pullen in New York Advertiser.

Fair and beautiful—the woman who keeps at a distance the complexion beautifiers, paints and powders, which soon ruin the face. A healthy glow to the skin, a face without wrinkles, and sparkling eyes, will be yours if you keep the system and the special internal organs in good condition. The young girl, or woman, often grows pale wrinkled and thin, eats little, everything wearies her, she complains of herself as aching and sore and as sleeping poorly. Often she is troubled with backache, or a tender spine, with a bearing-down weight in the abdomen, or at periods she may be irregular, or suffer extreme pain from functional derangements.

Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., in his long and active experience, met many cases of this kind, for which he used a prescription which was found to cure such difficulties permanently in ninety-eight per cent of all cases. Having proven so successful, Dr. Pierce put his "Favorite Prescription" on the market, and it is to-day sold more largely than any other medicine for the ills of woman.

For all functional derangements, displacements, ulceration, inflammation, and the catarrhal drain from the lining membranes of the special internal organs of women, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription reaches the origin of the trouble, and corrects it.

Mrs. Cripe

Mrs. Mary Cripe, of Frankfort, Franklin Co., Ill., writes: "A few years ago I took cold, which resulted in female trouble and affected my whole system. About a year ago, I took chills, had one or two a month, they were very weakening. Had pains in my sides more frequently in left side, gradually grew worse until, finally, I had to take to bed. I had a bad cough and couldn't rest. I commenced taking your medicine took it about four months, taking seven bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and five of his "Golden Medical Discovery." My weight has increased, and I feel better and stouter than I have for years."

From LaGrippe.

How Dr. Miles' Nervine Restored One of Kentucky's Business Men to Health.

No DISEASE has ever presented so many peculiar ties as LaGrippe. No disease leaves its victims so debilitated, useless, sleepless, nervous, as LaGrippe.

Mr. D. W. Hilton, state agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Kentucky, says:

"In 1889 and '90 I had two severe attacks of LaGrippe, the last one attacking my nervous system with such severity that my life was despaired of. I was not sleep for more than two months except by the use of narcotics that stupefied me, but gave me no rest. I was only conscious of the most mental weakness, agonizing bodily pain and the fact that I was hourly growing weaker.

While in this condition I commenced using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. In two days I began to improve and in one month's time I was cured much to the surprise of all who knew of my condition. I have been in excellent health since and have recommended your remedies to many of my friends."

"There is Danger In Delay."

Since 1861 I have been a great sufferer from catarrh. I tried Ely's Cream Balm and to all appearances am cured. Terrible headaches from which I had long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U. S. Vol. and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ely's Cream Balm has completely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio.

Price of Cream Balm is 50 cents.

Are Your Hands Chapped?

If so go to any drug store and ask for a free sample of Liquid Frangonia, a new preparation for chapped hands. Large bottles 25c.

Coughing Leads to Consumption.

Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once. Go to your druggist to-day and get a sample bottle free. Large bottles 50 cents and $1. Go at once, delays are dangerous.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N. Y.

INSTRUCTIVE.

An Incident In the Lives of Some Bicycle Riders.

It was an instructive incident, showing that the bicycle, like death, equalizes all men, and, even more difficult task, all women. The members of the household and their guests were seated on the piazza enjoying the rest that comes between afternoon tennis and tea. They were all spick and span as to attire. The white and blue flannels of the men and the organdies of the girls were perfection in their way, while nothing more placidly correct than the gray silk of the gray haired mistress of the house is ever seen, even in that placidly correct suburb.

Suddenly there appeared upon the scene a group of the most diametrically opposed class. There were two men, sunburned, bearded to an unbecoming and untidy degree, dusty, dirty, torn and disreputable looking. Behind them trailed three dejected looking women, who formed admirable companion pieces to them, so dirty, torn, burned, worn and dishevelled were they. They all advanced timorously toward the house. The piazza group surveyed them with suspicion and disdain. Were they tramps or gypsies? At any rate, they were "thoroughly disreputable looking customers," as one of the household party remarked audibly.

The less impossible looking of the two men addressed the house party.

"Beg pardon," said he, lifting his tattered cap, "but can you tell us where we can get something to eat in the town?"

Supercilious glances were exchanged among the doorstep group. But the gentle, gray haired hostess, whose sight and hearing are both a little dull, spoke kindly to the waifs.

"If you will go around by the side path to the kitchen door, my good man," she said, "I think the cook"—

But she was interrupted.

"Pardon me," said the spokesman for the tramps, "but we are looking for an eating house or hotel. We are," he added modestly, "not quite so bad as we look. We have been making a bicycle tour from Boston and"—

"A bicycle tour!" shouted one of the men on the porch.

"Oh, how lovely!" exclaimed one of the girls on the porch.

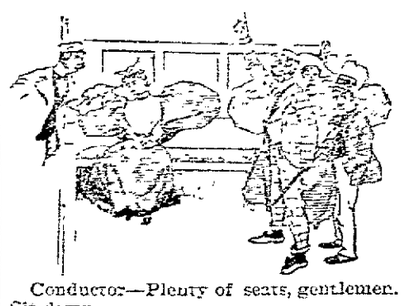
"Won't you come right up and join us?" cried the host. "There's tea coming, isn't there, mother? And later there'll be dinner. There are no hotels in town."

"Wouldn't you like to freshen up a bit?" asked one of the girls.

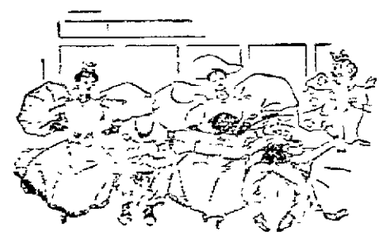
"Where have you left your wheels? Below the shrubbery? I'll send for them. Come, you must tell us all about it. We," confidentially, "are thinking of just such a trip ourselves."

So through the mazes of the bicycle the waifs' hearts longed for meats and the hungry were filled.—New York World.

Always In Style.



Conductor—Plenty of seats, gentlemen. Sit down.



They sat down—way down.—Truth.

She Was Right.

The barbarian, in accordance with the time honored custom of his tribe, lay in wait in the grass, waiting for the approach of the maiden whom he had chosen to wed.

As soon as she passed, he arose and with one blow of the large and knotty club he carried felled her to the earth.

She awoke from the consequent swoon, to find herself flung across his shoulder as he proceeded toward his hut. Though dazed at first, she realized that she had been proposed to in the regular style. "Dear me, Mr. Gwrrbblu," she twittered, "this is so sudden!"

In her case there was really some excuse for the remark.—Life.

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "New Great South American Kidney Cure." THE People of the State of New York to Cora Stivers and Ida Montanye, heirs at law and next of kin of Abigail Mackey, late of the city of Middletown, in the county of Orange, deceased, send greeting:

You and each of you are hereby cited personally to be and appear before our Surrogate, at his office in Goshen, in said county, on the 10th day of September, 1895, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, to attend the probate of a certain instrument in writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, bearing date the 24th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, on the application of Lewis S. Stivers and Elizabeth Mackey, claiming to be the executors thereof; which said last will relates to and is offered for probate as a will of real and personal property.

And that if any of the persons interested be under the age of twenty-one years they are required to appear by their guardian, if they have one, or if they have none, that they appear and apply for one to be appointed, or in the event of their neglect or failure to do so, a guardian will be appointed by the Surrogate to represent and act for them in the proceeding.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the seal of office of our said Surrogate's Court to be hereunto affixed. Witness Hon. Roswell C. Coleman, [L. S.] Surrogate of said county of Orange, at Goshen, in said county, the 10th day of July, A. D., 1895.

R. C. COLEMAN, Surrogate.

THE COMMON COUNCIL.

PROCEEDINGS OF THURSDAY NIGHT'S REGULAR MEETING.

Meeting of Taxpayers Ordered—Polling Places Designated—Sewer Extensions—Couldn't Override the Mayor's Veto—Houston Avenue Accepted—Fire House Fence Ordered Removed—Bills Audited.

A regular meeting of the Common Council was held, Thursday night. Present, President Dorrance and Aldermen Bastian, Close, Funnell, Hirst, Mance, Reed and Sinsabaugh.

President Wiggins, of the Board of Education, presented a certificate of the board that a new building is needed in place of the Academy building, at a cost of $54 000 for building and $6,000 for heating and ventilation. He urged that prompt action be taken, owing to the lateness of the season.

MEETING OF TAXPAYERS CALLED

Mr. Reed moved that a notice of a meeting of taxpayers for Tuesday, Sept. 24, from 2 to 8 p. m., be published, as required by the charter.

Mr. S. Albert Bull asked that needed work be done on Harrison street a distance of about 300 feet, where it will be necessary to cut down the street from two to three feet and to establish a grade.

Mr. Robert Boak asked that California avenue be accepted.

Chief Engineer Thorpe asked permission for Ontarios to take their carriage to Goshen on Oct. 3 He also stated that the floor of Eagle Hose house needs repairs.

Permission for Ontarios to take the carriage to Goshen was granted.

The matter of repairs to Eagles' floor was referred to the Committee on Public Buildings.

POLLING PLACES DESIGNATED.

Mr. Hirst moved that the polling places be designated. The motion was carried and polling places were designated as follows:

FIRST WARD

First Dist—Monhagens.
Second Dist—Morey's barn.
Third Dist—Ontarios.

SECOND WARD.

First Dist—Phœnix.
Second Dist—228 North street.
Third Dist—Waalkills.

THIRD WARD

First Dist—Wilson's stables.
Second Dist—I. B. A. Taylor's store.

FOURTH WARD

First Dist—26 East Main street.
Second Dist—Bryant's.
Third Dist—Ayers's barn.

A petition for the extension of the Monhagen avenue sewer from West Main street through Monhagen avenue to the State Hospital grounds was read and on motion the sewer was ordered.

Residents of James street petitioned that the street be swept instead of scraped hereafter.

Mr. Hirst said that the fact that the names of an ex-Mayor and ex-alderman were signed to the petition ought to be sufficient to satisfy Council that the request was a reasonable one and he moved that it be granted. Mr. Bastian said he seconded the motion most heartily and it was carried.

Mr. Mance moved that the resolution to pave Wickham avenue, passed Aug. 5, which the Mayor returned without his approval, be now passed

SAME OLD THING.

Mr. Bastian asked that the resolution be read again and said "Hub, S. O. T." which being interpreted means: "Same old thing."

Messrs. Bastian Reed and Sinsabaugh voted no and Messrs. Dorrance, Close, Hirst, Funnell and Mance yes.

ONE VOTE SHY.

"I can't do that," said Mr. Bastian. "It isn't right." There being one less than a two-third vote the resolution was lost.

Mr. Bastian moved that a naphtha lamp be placed at the corner of Prospect avenue and Houston avenue. Carried.

Mr. Hirst said there should be a man hole to the sewer at the junction of Highland avenue and Hanford street. Referred to Sewer Committee.

Mr. Reed moved that the Street Commissioner curb in front of the lot owned by the Roth estate on Dolson avenue. Carried.

Mr. Hirst moved that needed work be done on Wawayanda avenue near the tannery.

THE ORACLE SPEAKS.

Mr. Reed said the Street Committee would do the work without an order.

Mr. Hirst said the committee was free to promise, but never did any thing he asked for.

Mr. Reed—"We'll see that it's done."

Mr. Hirst insisted on his motion and it was carried.

HOUSTON AVENUE EXTENSION ACCEPTED

Mr. Reed called up the release of Houston avenue and moved that the street be accepted. Carried.

MONHAGENS AND M'QUOIDS FENCE ORDERED SOLD.

Mr. Reed called up his resolution to remove and sell the iron fence from engine house properties on East Main street.

Mr. Funnell said some of the firemen objected to the removal of the fence.

Mr. Hirst said firemen had come to him requesting that the fence be left where it is.

Mr. Bastain favored the removal of the fence for the good of Middletown. He said the excuse of boys running upon the property was a baby excuse He wasn't afraid of the "boys;" (the firemen) he believed in removing the fence for the public good. The fence was put up years ago to keep out cows and oxen, and was not needed now. Mr. Bastain became very earnest and entertained his hearers for several minutes with his oratory.

The motion was put and carried, Messrs. Hirst, Mance and Funnell voting no.

Mr. Mance reported favorably on the flagging of North street from Wisner avenue to the city limits.

On motion of Mr. Funnell it was ordered that the flagging be done within thirty days.

Mr. Reed said that it was absolutely necessary to pave the gutters on Hanford street where property owners have set curbing. (This matter was brought up by Mr. Hirst at the last meeting, but, he being a Democrat, no attention was given the matter until the property owners were heard from).

Mr. Reed moved that the work be done and it was carried.

The map of the North street sewer extension was received and placed on file, and on motion of Mr. Reed the sewer was ordered constructed.

At 10 o'clock, Mr. Close asked permission to retire, and Mr. Hirst said if there was no urgent business he thought the bills should be audited and the members go home, but the Council never adjourns at a seasonable hour, and, although there was no important business to transact, the session was continued so as not to break the record.

On motion of Mr. Funnell the City Engineer was directed to prepare a map for a proposed sewer on Broad street, from Rowan to Dewitt street.

Nine Months In Bed, Cured In Twenty Four Hours.

T. J. Blackmore, of Haller & Blackmore, Pittsburgh, Pa., says: "A short time since I procured a bottle of "MYSTIC CURE." It got me out of the house in twenty-four hours. I took to my bed with Rheumatism nine months ago and the "MYSTIC CURE" is the only medicine that did me any good. I had five of the best physicians in the city, but I received very little relief from them. I know the "MYSTIC CURE." to be what it is represented and take pleasure in recommending it to other poor sufferers." Sold by J. E. Mills, druggist, Middletown, N. Y.

That Tired Feeling

is a common complaint and it is a dangerous symptom. It means that the system is debilitated because of impure blood, and in this condition it is especially liable to attacks of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for this condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently on the bowels and liver. 25c. 6

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at McMonagle and Rogers' Drug Store.

Cholera Morbus is a dangerous complaint, and often is fatal in its results. To avoid this you should use DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure, as soon as the first symptoms appear. W. D. Oliver

TELL-TALE FACES.

PINCHED AND CAREWORN,

As Worn by Many American Women.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS]

The "tell-tale face" is worn by many American women, and is a symptom of symptoms, a signal of distress.

While women do all in their power to hide their condition, the practised eye soon detects the trouble.

When pains and aches are felt in every part of the body, when faintness, dizziness, and that bearing-down feeling prevail, when loss of sleep and appetite are reducing flesh daily, when the society of friends is irksome, and the hopeless "blues" predominate, then the face is pinched, haggard, and careworn, and prompt relief is necessary, or a beautiful life will be sacrificed.

An American woman, Lydia E. Pinkham, a student of women and their diseases, twenty years ago succeeded in producing an absolute cure for all diseases of women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands to-day as it did then, pre-eminent.

Mrs. H. Wampler, of Barabo, Wis., whose letter we were permitted to publish last year, writes that she hopes Mrs. Pinkham will continue to use her name, as the publication in newspapers of the account of her own wonderful cure and relief from years of misery has been the means of influencing many suffering women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and become well like herself. Mrs. Wampler feels, and rightly, too, that in this way she is doing a great good.
